Jay
Dear Mr. Mandarino,

Thank you for your support of our students through the C. J. Graphics Inc. Award in the School of Graphic Communications Management in the Faculty of Communication and Design (FCAD). Your incredible generosity helps remove financial barriers and provides opportunity and encouragement for our students.

Your support has been critical to our success. Your investment bolsters the School's commitment to excellence as a leader in experiential education and creative research. Because of donors like you, FCAD was able to provide over $800,000 in scholarships and bursaries this year, this included over $55,000 in donor funded scholarships in the School of Graphic Communications Management this year.

Support for scholarships and awards directly impact how our students experience education, and transforms the opportunities we can offer to these talented young people. On behalf of our students, faculty and staff, thank you for your generous support. I am so grateful for your belief in the promise and potential of our future graduates.

Thank You so much Jay + team!
Sincerely,

Alan Barty
